1. Emergency arbitrator

Emergency arbitrators shall receive a minimum fee of €2,000 and a maximum fee of €5,000.

2. Completion of the procedure before granting the award

A) In case of there existing an agreement between the parties:

- a) That the said agreement is added to the award and the following circumstances take place:
 - i. After the set out objections, if any, have been resolved: €1,000/€3,000.
 - ii. After resolving the cause of arbitral challenge, if any: €1,000/€3,000.
 - iii. Before the submission of the pleadings: €1,000/€4,000.
 - iv. After the submission of the pleadings: €1,000/€6,000.
 - v. After the submission of the statement of defence and/or counterclaim: 20% of the fee.
 - vi. After the submission of the opposition to the counterclaim: 30% of the fee.
 - vii. After the submission of evidence: 60% of the fee.
 - viii. After the submission of the letter of conclusions: 80% of the fee.
 - ix. During the writing process of the award: 90-95%.
- b) In case that the said agreement is not added to the award and it is reached in any of the aforementioned circumstances:
The fees resulting from the different assumptions established in letter a) shall be reduced by 10%.

B) In case of acquiescence of the defendant:

Rates provided for in sub-paragraph A. a) shall apply, depending of the phase in which the acquiescence takes place.

C) In case of withdrawal of the plaintiff:

The above rates will apply, from the defence to the request for arbitration, taking into account the phase in which the withdrawal occurs.

D) For any other cause:

Above provided rates will apply depending on to the phases in which the triggering event of the conclusion of the arbitration takes place.

3. Termination of proceedings by the relevant award

The amount of the fees of the arbitrators shall be obtained by applying to the successive parts of the sum in dispute, the percentages indicated in the following scale, and subsequently adding the figures obtained. In any case, the minimum fee will be €1,000.

This rule is applicable for determining the fees of one single arbitrator; in case of there being three, the amount resulting from the application must be multiplied by the factor 2.5 and divide by 3; if the arbitral tribunal consists of five members, the amount resulting from its application must be multiplied by 4 and divided by 5.
